Networking in the Spirit

Mission Statement

The mission of the Oratory Schools is to promote the formation of Christian character, Catholic lay leadership, Christian fellowship and community service by integrating the gospel message with a liberal arts educational program in the spirit exemplified by its founder St. Philip Neri.

Code of Canon Law

In giving life to our children, "parents have a most serious obligation and enjoy the right to educate them; therefore, Christian parents are especially to care for the Christian education of their children according to the teachings handed on by the Church." (Canon 226)

PENS Agreement

Our children are the most important gifts God has entrusted to us. As a volunteer, I promise to strictly follow the rules and guidelines in this Volunteer's Code of Conduct as a condition of providing services to the youth of the Pharr Oratory Schools of St. Philip Neri.

In understand that as a volunteer working with children and adolescents, I am subject to a thorough background check including criminal history. I understand that any action inconsistent with this Code of Conduct or failure to take action as mandated by this code of Conduct may result in my removal as a volunteer in the PENS Committee.
